

HELPING MORE HIGH SCHOOL STUDENTS EARN

FREE COLLEGE CREDIT

SATURDAY

Nov. 5

10 AM- 2PM

Dual credit programs allow students to earn college credit while still in high school. It's a great way for students to challenge themselves and save time and money. Join us to learn more about these programs and help develop a plan to ensure more Minnesota students, especially low income and students of color, can participate.

This is a FREE event

Lunch will be served

WILDER FOUNDATION
451 LEXINGTON PARKWAY NORTH
SAINT PAUL, MN 55104

Register online at
<http://bit.ly/DualCreditMN>

For more information contact
joe@centerforschoolchange.org
or 651-757-1752

WHO SHOULD ATTEND?

- Middle and high school students, parents and grandparents who want to learn more about the benefits of dual credit
- Educators who want to learn more and think about how to increase participation
- Community leaders who want the information and tools to help get the word out
- Advocates who want to discuss how recent policy changes will impact the future of dual credit

Co-Sponsors: Association of Metropolitan School Districts, Center for School Change, Council for Minnesotans of African Heritage, Education Evolving, Generation Next, Growth & Justice, Council on Asian Pacific Minnesotans, Minnesota Council on Latino Affairs, Minnesota Business Partnership, Migizi Communications, MinnCAN, Minnesota Association of Charter Schools, Minnesota Association of Secondary School Principals, Minnesota Association of School Administrators, Minnesota Education Equity Partnership, Minnesota Private College Council, Minnesota Rural Education Association, Minnesota School Boards Association, Reach Higher Minnesota, Rochester Public Schools, St. Paul Indians In Action, St. Paul Public Schools, Coalition of Asian American Leaders, Minnesota School Counselors Association and Students for Education Reform-Minnesota.

Financially sponsored by Generation Next and the Holman Fund at St. Paul Foundation